ASUR ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF JOSE CUERVO TEQUILERIA RESTAURANT AND AWARDS CONCESSIONS TO OPERATE A GAS STATION AND A CONVENIENCE STORE AT THE CANCUN INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Mexico City, September 25, 2003.- Grupo Aeroportuario del Sureste, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: ASR; BMV: ASUR) (ASUR) the first privatized Mexican airport management group, and operator of the Cancun airport and eight others in the southeast of Mexico, today announced it has awarded the concession to operate a gas station and convenience store, as well as announces the opening of the Jose Cuervo Tequileria restaurant, both at Cancun airport.

The Jose Cuervo Tequileria restaurant is located in the international gate of the satellite building at the International Airport of Cancun. The restaurant is operated by Controladora Mera, S.A. of C.V., one of the food and beverages concessionaires of the Cancun, Merida and Cozumel airports.

Commenting on the opening of the restaurant, Kjeld Binger, Chairman and Interim CEO of ASUR, said: "This addition to the airport should make the overall experience of passengers traveling through our airports more comfortable and enjoyable. It also has the potential to become a valuable, quality service to the community of Cancun in general."

ASUR awarded the 20-year gas station and convenience store concession to operate in the International Airport of Cancun to Mexico-based PERC Group.

"The proposal put forth by PERC Group contains all ecological, security and service requirements that we were looking for in the bidding process; these are the type of quality services that we believe our clients at the International Airport of Cancun deserve and require," he concluded.

The operator of the gas station was selected after a public bidding process, in which 13 operators, with domestic and regional experience, were invited to participate. The bids were evaluated using a model originally developed by Copenhagen Airports. The outcome was based solely on the merits of the offer, and the Company believes it has established a new standard in the airport industry for transparency and professionalism in the selection of a winning proposal.

Commenting on the selection process, Manuel Gutierrez Sola, Chief Commercial Director of ASUR, said "Our evaluation and selection was done in a transparent and well balanced way, and we are very happy to see that several interesting proposals were put forward for consideration. The process was designed to select the most qualified offer and the concession was awarded to the operator which we felt was ready to create a synergistic partnership with our company.
