ASUR Reports Impact from Hurricane Wilma

Mexico City, October 24, 2005, Grupo Aeroportuario del Sureste, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: ASR; BMV: ASUR) (ASUR) the first privatized airport group in Mexico and operator of Cancun Airport and eight others in the southeast of Mexico, today announced that Hurricane Wilma hit the peninsula of Yucatan over the last three days, strongly impacting the region. The Company is in the preliminary stages of evaluating the damage from the hurricane. At the present time, the Company can report the following:

1. Cozumel and Cancún airports have been closed since Friday, October 21 at 15:00 pm and 19:00 pm Mexico time, respectively. The Company has not yet quantified the number of flights that have been cancelled due to the impact of the hurricane. The company cannot estimate at the present time when both airports will open to carry out commercial operations.
2. Due to the impact of hurricane Wilma on the Company's administrative offices at the Cancún airport, as well as in the communications infrastructure of the city, the Company's earnings announcement for the third quarter of 2005, which was to be released today before market open, is now expected to be released before market open of tomorrow.
3. Damages to the infrastructure of the Cozumel and Cancún airports, the administrative offices of these airports and hotel infrastructure in the region resulting from the hurricane cannot yet be quantified.
