ASUR Announces that Flooding in Villahermosa Impacts Villahermosa Airport

Mexico City, November 5, 2007 - Grupo Aeroportuario del Sureste, S.A.B. de C.V. (NYSE: ASR; BMV: ASUR) (ASUR), today announced that, due to flooding in the City of Villahermosa and in approximately 80% of the Mexican state of Tabasco, passenger traffic at the Villahermosa airport will be impacted negatively, although at present, the Company is unable to estimate the full potential passenger traffic impact of the event.

On November 1st and 2nd the airport operated to evacuate the city, and over the weekend most of the airport's operations were dedicated to cooperating with the military assistance in the rescue and first aid efforts effort for local residents. The airport is continuing to give assistance to the military in these efforts as well.

Airport infrastructure has not been impacted by the flooding.

In the past twelve months, passenger traffic from the Villahermosa Airport has represented 5.4% of ASUR's total passenger traffic.
